Workshop Topics

A1: NO APOLOGIES by Focus on the Family

Target audience: Youth, College and University Students | Language: ENG

Life is full of choices. Some critical choices that we make in our lives will have a great impact in our future. No Apologies® is a character-based curriculum that helps young people make wise choices regarding themselves and their relationship.

A2: SUCCESSFUL CAREERS AND ENTREPRENEURS by Alex Chan / Karen Eng

Target audience: Young Working Adult | Language: ENG

Everyone in this world is trying to build successful careers and businesses. Come and listen to the secrets to success from these people who have achieved success before.

A3: HALF TIME by Ps Geraldine James

Target audience: Professional Working Adults and Family | Language: ENG & MAND

Everyone goes through life transitions when they hit different milestones. It is vital for us to know how to be purposeful in God during these transitions. Are you ready for greater things that will happen at the second half of your life?

A4: PROMOTING LEARNING AND COMMUNICATION SKILLS FOR CHILDREN by Oo Kah Pheng | Language: ENG, MAND & BM

Target audience: Young Family with Kids below 12 Years Old and Those in Children Ministry

It is the heart desire of every parent for their children to learn and grow. This workshop aims to equip parents with different ways to promote learning and communication skills during their child's vital years. In addition, parents will also be exposed to different challenges in bringing up kids with autism, hyperactivity, speech difficulties, etc.

A5: MiGO2 (MENTORING THE INTERNET GENERATION ONLINE AND OFFLINE) by Generasi Gemilang

Target audience: Family with Teenage Children | Language: ENG & MAND

MiGO2 aims to bridge the digital divide between parents and children by helping them understand the ABCs of the Internet today related to social networking, gaming and pornography. During these sessions, parents are encouraged to be participative in their child's Internet activity as an effort to mentor the next generation.

March 1, 2014 Saturday 2.30pm - 6.30pm

Workshop Topics

B1: CYBER WELLNESS by Generasi Gemilang

Target audience: Youth, College and University Students | Language: ENG

The Internet is like a window for one to explore what is going around in the world and to meet different people. It brings great benefits but we need to be aware of its dangers as well. This workshop aims to bring an awareness of the benefits & dangers of the Internet age.

B2: BUILDING STRONG FOUNDATION FOR THE FUTURE by Estee Tan

Target audience: College and University Students | Language: ENG

It is vital for one to take wise steps in building a strong foundation for a successful career, life and future. This workshop aims to provide us with valuable insights and practical tips!

B3: INVESTING FOR YOUR FUTURE by Danny Yeo / Bryan Chung

Target audience: Young Working Adults, Professional Working Adults and Family | Language: ENG

Investing isn't just for the wealthy. Almost anyone can devote some money for investments to grow their wealth for the future. This workshop aims to equip people with practical investment practices and steps to avoid the rat race.

B4: RAISING SECURE CHILDREN IN AN INSECURE WORLD by Tan Su Chen

Target audience: Young Family with Kids below 12 Years Old, Professional Working Adults and Family

Our influence is undeniably powerful as our words and actions can either build up, or inadvertently tear down a child. Sowing seeds of security from an early age will nurture healthy children. This workshop aims to equip parents, teachers and child workers with skills-based knowledge to raise secure children.

B5: PARENTING TEENS by Patrick and Germaine Cheng

Target audience: Family with Teenage Children

Many parents struggle to raise up their teenage children because they are not able to understand the Youth Culture or adapt a suitable parenting style. Therefore, this workshop aims to provide relevant tips and guidelines to help parents raise up biblical teens.

B6: STILL SOARING HIGH by Ps Geraldine James

Target audience: Golden Eagle

After much contribution to the society and their family, the Golden Age may feel lonely sometimes without a clear purpose in life. In this workshop, we are going to share how the Golden Age can still soar high up like an eagle with a clear sense of God's purpose. We also aim to help the Golden Age avoid the empty nest syndrome.

Profile Summary

FOCUS ON THE FAMILY

Focus on the Family Malaysia, established in 1997, is a non-profit organization set up with a clear vision to strengthen families. They are committed to strengthening the family unit so as to encourage and promote an enriched family life for all.

Their aim is to collaborate with professional counselors, educators, government agencies, corporations, family support organizations, and resource agencies who are dedicated to the preservation of the family. They help families to thrive by providing sound family content, relevant resources, effective events and programs, and counseling help, as reflected in seven core areas.
